

Benefits to Industry and Community

Permanent building(s) of up to 40,000 sq ft. which would include:

- Indoor washrooms and culinary/processing center
- Indoor viewing center/classroom/educational area on a second floor
- A permanent location for the farmers market with a certified processing/teaching kitchen, water and power for vendors and indoor washroom facilities for customers

- A world class education center to improve awareness of local agriculture, its contribution to habitat for trumpeter swans, and to educate the public about waterfowl and trumpeter swans
- A sales and marketing incubator for new farmers
- A distribution center, and a marketplace for local products to serve the local retail and restaurant industries
- A place to celebrate local agriculture, to host events related to local food production

"It is not the strongest of the species that survives, nor the most intelligent, but the one that is most responsive to change."

Charles Darwin