LATEST MESSAGE FROM THE 2010 COMMERCE CENTRE

Greetings from the 2010 Commerce Centre.

Here is your link to our latest newsletter where you'll find some interesting stories, like Bell's decision to use the 2010 Commerce Centre's procurement system to display its 2010 business opportunities.

The 2010 Commerce Centre is the place to get the information you need to do business related to the Games. Please take advantage of our free email procurement notification service by signing up at the Procurement Opportunities Center. I encourage you to do it today as a number of excellent opportunities have already closed.

Don't forget to bookmark the site and check back often for Olympic-related business news as well as some excellent business tools and resources that will be added very soon.

Please enjoy this issue of the newsletter and let us know if you have any recommendations that could make our website even better.

Sincerely,
Brian Krieger
